

Search Engine Optimization: How do Search Engines Find My Website?

Spiders!

Spiders are programs that crawl the web looking for websites. When they find your website, they crawl from one page to the next, indexing your content and giving it an index value. This is typical of major search engines like Google and Bing.

Unique solution ID: #1110

Author: Homespun Support

Last update: 2010-12-27 08:03