

Newsletter Feature: How can my new website visitors sign up to receive my newsletter?

Your website visitors can automatically subscribe to your newsletter by submitting their email in your newsletter sign up box that appears in your side banner. Anyone who submits their email address to your website will automatically be added into your subscriber list and will receive a confirmation email confirming their subscription. You will also receive a confirmation email letting you know that you have a new subscriber.

Unique solution ID: #1076

Author: Homespun Support

Last update: 2011-03-03 00:33